

GLOBAL FAMILY VALUE NETWORK

GKML is setting up an infrastructure with a vision to maintain, engage and discuss positive family values, which are fast being eroded, and prevent families from accepting new destructive values. The family is the best place to work on for a better world. Global Family Value Network is an open platform that empowers individuals, families, groups and communities to organize for progressive cause in addressing social values, political values, religious values, work values, moral values, recreational values, traditional values, modern values and society impacts on family values.

We encourage every group of the family, children, teens, youths, couples, women and men, as well as schools, and other organizations to join the platform so that they can benefit from our GKML Universal corporate social responsibility and Generational Kingdom Purpose Foundation Library (GKPFL) Programs. GKPFL is a digital & print library, digital repository, or digital collection, and an online database of digital objects that can include text, images, audio, video, or other digital media formats.

Our programs are designed to give families enough moral value support and financial support for families experiencing difficulties and other crisis, which are partly fueled by lack of positive family values within the society.

Global Family value Network, has got family value support programs where individual with problems or experiencing any difficulties can share their experiences, challenges and perceptions with other people. Accessing the GKML family value support program is an appropriate form of support that can help you reduce and manage the negative consequences of the challenges such as drug intimidation, bereavement, educational disadvantages and unemployment.

Family engagement initiative to build genuine relationships with families in global communities relationships with families support overall family human sanity well-being and children's healthy development ...Family engagement through GKML family values with a peaceful purpose parental care support that parents and others who care for their children work together to prepare children for success in all its ramifications.

Our network platform is also an interactive networking for families values discussion and families trees building.
